THE STRIKING MINERS.

Upon the Pittsburgh Miners Depends Success or Failure.

The Leaders of the United Mine Workers Willing to Engage the Strike, But Co-operation is Necessary to Success.

COLUMBUS, O., July 6.—President Ratchford of the United Mine Workers spent Monday at headquarters, but not many reports were received from the various mining districts throughout the country as to the progress of the strike. President Ratchford said it would require several days to receive full information on this point, as the district presidents would necessarily have to have time to communicate with the numerous locals before reporting definitely to national headquarters as to the completeness of the suspension. Monday being observed as a national holiday will naturally retard the reports to some extent. Before the end of the present week, however, the national officers will have the information at hand as to the situation at all the mines in the country. If there should be any mines in operation the officials will know their location, the number of men employed, and whether or not they are members of the miners' organization. The information which the national officers have at hand is of a general nature, and is to the effect that the miners have generally suspended work and the strike probably is a success. The success of the whole movement seems to devolve upon the men in the Pittsburgh district, and judging from the latest advice received from the field the miners there propose to do their part. The men in the Pittsburgh and Ohio districts do not intend to put forth any effort to start their mines, but have concluded to quietly close down and await developments. At least it will require several days for the operators to determine upon what course to pursue.

President Ratchford said: "The success of the movement naturally depends upon the unanimity with which the miners respond. We are ready and willing to lead the movement, but the efforts of the miners themselves is the real force, and we can not fail to succeed if they play their part."

President Ratchford said he had been astonished at the great number of telegrams from operators requesting permission to operate their mines by paying the price demanded by the miners. These requests could not be granted for the reason that to do so would be defeating the very object which the strike is intended to accomplish.

The Ohio operators will be governed in their course entirely by the action of the Pittsburgh operators. If the latter agree to an advance in the price, the Ohio operators will not object, but will readily pay the advance. As a matter of fact, it is understood that they would rather pay a higher price and continue the operation of their mines. The regular meeting of the Ohio Coal association will be held in Detroit today, but it is hardly probable that any action will be taken in reference to the strike further than has already been decided upon and that is to await developments in the Pittsburgh district.

FRIGHTFUL BALLOON ACCIDENT

A Six-Year-Old Child Dashed to Death Through a Thousand Feet of Space. SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—Betram Hill, the six-year-old son of Chauncey Hill, a well-known actor, died yesterday of a sensational balloon accident. In company with Miss Olney, daughter of his guardian, he went to Bluff's park, near Oakland, to witness a hot air balloon ascension by Charles Conlan, of the Chicago Athletic Club. When the balloon shot into the air the child clung to one of the guy ropes. The aeronaut heard the shouts of the people not to cut loose his parachute, and obeyed, not knowing the reason. When 1,000 or more feet in the air he heard the boy's cries and a cap came fluttering down. He called out to his unseen companion to hold on, and made every effort to save him, but in vain, for soon the child's body shot by him and was crushed out of shape when it struck the earth.

He was formerly vice-president of the Chicago & Quincy railroad, and recently president of the Chicago Telephone Co.

The children were discharging fireworks on the lawn. Mr. Stone's little daughter asked him to light a bomb. He lighted it and threw it from him, but the explosion did not follow. After waiting a short time Mr. Stone cautiously approached the spot where the bomb lay and bent over to see what the trouble was. Just then it exploded. Large fragments struck him in the forehead, and he fell, instantly killed. The accident practically put a stop to the celebration of the Fourth in this place.

IN HONOR OF LOGAN.

Grand Military Display at the Unveiling of the Monument.

CHICAGO, July 8.—At the request of Senators Cullom and Mason, Secretary Alger has decided to send 2,000 regular troops to Chicago to take part, on July 22, in the ceremonies at the unveiling of the Logan monument. The senators represented to the secretary of war the national character of this event, and Gen. Alger, being a great admirer of Gen. Logan, suggested to the president that the unveiling of this monument should be recognized as an event of national importance. The president agreed with the secretary of war and the Illinois senator. Secretary Alger has issued an order for two full regiments of infantry one battalion of light artillery and two companies of cavalry to report for duty at Chicago on July 22. The troops will be taken from Forts Sheridan, Wayne and Brady, and Jefferson Barracks. So many United States troops have not been detailed for such an event in many years, with the exception of the destruction of Gen. Grant's tomb in New York last April. With 3,000 federal troops, the state militia and military companies from adjoining states, there promises to be a great military display at the unveiling of the monument.

The president and his cabinet will also be here if it is possible for them to leave Washington.

THE RAMIE INDUSTRY.

A Decorating Machine From France to be Used in the Country.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Secretary Wilson expects to bring a ramie decorating machine from France for experiment in the course of a contemplated development of the ramie industry. The machine will be tested here and an opportunity given to study, in actual field operations, and to compare the principles of construction involved in this and American machines. Special Agent Dodge in charge of fiber investigations in the agricultural department, has submitted a report in which he states there is hardly a machine that will not cut out fine fiber when the stalks are fed two or three at a time, but under the rigid department rules, in a test for quality with paying quantity, all so far observed have failed utterly. As there has been a steady improvement in machine since the Belgian trials in 1885, the hope is expressed that we may yet have machinery which will give quality of fiber approaching the Chinese grass of commerce with a quantity of output to defray expenses and leave a margin of profit.

BEHRING SEA QUESTION.

The London Chronicle's Misconstruction of Our Intentions.

No Change in the Policy of the United States Probable—All of the Correspondence Marked by Perfect Diplomatic Courtesy.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—The fact that the state department is preparing for transmission to congress the correspondence that it has had since the beginning of the season respecting the Behring sea seal fisheries appears to have been construed in some quarters and by the London Chronicle as an indication of a purpose on the part of our government to make a radical change in its policy in the treatment of that long-standing diplomatic issue, and to seize on this opportunity to announce its adoption of a "hard American policy."

The truth is, that this particular correspondence was called for by congress weeks ago and has been delayed in transmission principally because Mr. Foster, who conducted personally the handling of part of it in conjunction with Mr. Hamlin, was absent in Europe. Now, however, it is in shape and probably will go to congress this week.

It can be stated that it will not show any change in the policy of this government, which has ever since the first year's experience under the Paris award regulations showed the inefficiency of those regulations to protect the seals, lost no opportunity to urge an extension of the rules upon Great Britain. This has been done constantly at all times, and Great Britain has responded in like spirit, though, to the regret of our government, without consenting to the modifications desired. There have been some misunderstandings exchanged. For instance, the British have protested against what they termed the abuse of the right of search on the part of our patrol vessels, and on the part the British have been too busy with their refusal to permit the sealing of fur seals carried by sealers amounted to an evasion of the spirit of the Paris award. But in all this there has been no exhibition of ill-feel or anything like "jingoism" on our part, and while the recent success of Mr. Foster in securing the extension of the regulations over the entire north Pacific ocean beyond the fortieth degree has strengthened our position in the British negotiations, it cannot be said that there has been any change in the line of policy that was laid down by Secretary Olney in the last administration.

The Aden carried 34 passengers from China and Japan.

EMINENT statisticians calculate that the winter wheat crop will be 60,000,000 bushels beyond the Government estimate.

CHRISTIAN county has a splendid wheat crop now being threshed and the buyers are actively at work preparing to handle the big yield.

Dr. W. G. HUNTER is selling his property at Burksville, it is stated, with a view to his early departure for a diplomatic post which he is sure of getting. That's what the wires say.

The average Populist has about decided that he was bamboozled once too often by the Democrats last fall and is repeating a repetition. He don't like "fusion" that gives all the offices to the Democrats.

The Omaha World-Herald, Mr. Bryan's personal organ, has abandoned that gentleman in so far as to call attention to the activity and general improved condition of stock business and markets in the West and predicts a continuation of these conditions.

A MOVEMENT is on foot to erect a monument costing $5,000 in the court house square at Princeton to the memory of the late Judge F. W. Darby. A board of directors has been appointed to push the matter. Hon. Polk Laffoon is a member for Hopkins county.

THE BEE acknowledges the receipt of the first number of The Gold Standard, published at Smithland, Ky., conducted strictly as a sound-money paper. The establishment of such a paper is evidence of the growing sentiment in favor of the standard it advocates.

INDICATIONS are that the proposed fusion of Republicans and National Democrats in the Appellate Clerkship race will not be effected. The National Democrats will not put their nominees under the Log Cabin. They desire to strengthen their organization by making a fight independent of the Republican party.

THE representation as determined upon for the sound money State Democratic Convention to be held in Louisville July 14, will be based on Cleveland's vote for 1892, allowing one delegate for 200 votes or fraction over 100 votes. Hopkins is entitled to ten delegates; Webster, to six; Christian, to twelve; Henderson, to eleven.

THE New York World estimates that a loss of $24,962,500 monthly will be caused by the coal miners' strike, provided 375,000 men should quit work. This estimate only includes loss to miners, operators and to the railroads in freights. Of this amount $10,125,000 a month is stated as the probable loss to the miners in wages. If the loss that would be entailed on the manufacture and trade and the individual citizen of the country could be estimated or guessed at some idea might be formed as to how serious would be the result of such a strike upon the now generally acknowledged surely returning prosperity.

ON July 2, silver was worth 60 cents an ounce, and our silver dollar was worth about 46 1/2 cents. Wheat and other products are not declining with silver and the advocates of 16 to 1 who last year hooted at the law of supply and demand now have concluded that there must be something in it, for they'll just "be darned" if they will give the prospective tariff bill credit for anything in the prosperity line.

PATRICK DOLAN, an official of the United Mine Workers in the Pittsburgh district says:

"There are too many mines, not too many miners. It is the surplus of operators that causes such sufferings and low wages."

The supposition is that he means that the great number of operators produces fierce and unwise competition which in turn demoralizes prices and makes it impossible to pay miners living wages. And there is some truth in it.

THE Louisville Dispatch quotes the Memphis Appeal as follows:

"Eugene Debs declares free silver is dead and henceforth he will advocate State socialism. If Debs had made this announcement before the last election the result might have been different. The Debses and Debslings and other brain-trained theorists injured the cause of silver by their advocacy of it." Likely by Dood-bug and hair-brained theorists. These Popocratic papers allude to Tillman, Alge, Thomas Watson, Marion Butler and some others who refuse to fuse and have their wind shut off. What the Popocrat wants is that the Populist vote, and vote for them, and stop talking. See—Grayson Eagle.

THE Owensboro collectorship fight has been settled by the appointment of Mr. T. J. Vandell of Marion. Mr. E. T. Franks is to be chief deputy with, as is understood, an equal division of salary. When it was discovered that Mr. Vandell had failed of the appointment as deputy United States Marshal the Crittenden Press said:

"Every man in Crittenden county is in a state of party agitation, was anxious that Mr. Vandell should get the place, because he is appreciated by the people who know him as a competent, honest, worthy, deserving man."

THERE is a "Captain" somebody down at Mayfield, where they are accustomed to regulate matters in their own way without the law for a referee, who has been to Nashville and has come back mad at the railroad companies. He is mad because he had to wait for his ticket to be stamped at the selling office, because it had to be re-stamped at Nashville, because there was a rush of people in the depot there and because the railroad company had not put into their station at that city a big, clear, cool spring of running water with an iceberg in the center. He wants to own a newspaper long enough to "skin them alive." The "Captain" should take another trip or two away from home and learn how the world goes.

EX-GOVERNOR BOIES, of Iowa, in his letter abandoning the free coinage of silver at 16 to 1 and stating the futility of the fight to accomplish that impossible end, throws consternation into the camp of the political demagogues who continue the fight after the battle is lost. Speaking of the possibility of "convincing the American people that a gold standard is wrong" he says: "There is no argument that can be used in the future to accomplish that end that was not thoroughly exhausted in the contest we lost." And this leader of the silverites declares it impossible in his judgment to succeed on a platform demanding the unqualified free coinage of silver at 16 to 1.

DUN'S Review, which is looked upon by business men as a reliable indicator of business conditions, speaks encouragingly of the improvement in all lines. In its issue of June 26th it says: "There is no backward step in business, although the season of midsummer quiet is near. Improvement continues, gradual and prudently cautious as before, although in many branches evident where no signs of it appeared a few weeks ago. Business men of the highest standing in all parts of the country having gradually perceived that the tide has begun to rise, are regulating their contracts and investments and the plans for the future with a confidence quite unknown to them a short time ago. Great changes before the adjournment of Congress are hardly to be expected but removal of uncertainty is with reason expected to bring into operation buying forces which have been restricted for months. The main factor at that time is the steadily brightening prospect for crops. Harvesting of wheat has already begun with surprisingly good results, and statisticians of repute calculate that the winter wheat crop will be 60,000,000 bushels beyond the Government estimate."

The Lost Cause.

EX-GOVERNOR BOIES, of Iowa, one of the former leading champions of the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 has abandoned that proposition and now comes out in favor of a paper currency based on the market value of silver bullion.

"Uncle Hood," as he is familiarly known, expresses the hopelessness of the free coinage proposition in the following words:

"For one, I do not believe it possible to succeed upon a platform that demands unqualified free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 with gold. We have fought that battle and it is lost. We can never fight it over under circumstances more favorable to ourselves. If we hope to succeed we must abandon this extreme demand."

CHARLIE GRASSHAM Will Do.

Let us have a National Democrat with whom to best John Grant for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney. The BEE believes there is such a man and favors his endorsement by the Republicans. The fact is we need a prosecuting attorney—Earlington BEE.

THE Standard heartily voices the sentiment of THE BEE, and believes that THE BEE has asked for can be found. Attorney Charles C. Grassham of this city, who has been nominated by the sound money Democracy, and endorsed by the Republicans in Livingston county for Commonwealth's Attorney is a wide-awake, energetic young gentleman, an able prosecutor, and as an attorney has no peer in this section of the State. Should Mr. Grassham accept the nomination he will doubtless be elected by a handsome majority.—The Gold Standard, Smithland, Ky.

The Labor Troubles.

(Globe-Democrat).

The fact that the coal miners have determined to quit work, thus largely increasing the area of the labor disturbance caused by the iron, steel and glass workers, who are already out, is an unfortunate circumstance. Of course, the demands of the miners, like those of the iron, steel and glass men, appear to the general public to be moderate. The "fair day's work" for a fair day's work which the miners ask is eminently reasonable. In the best of times the wages of these workers are low, and they have been reduced in the past year or two more than once. The public is aware of this, and sympathizes with the miners in their sufferings. No class of men felt the effects of the convulsion of 1893 earlier than the miners, or have been afflicted longer. In any general revival of business which comes to the country they certainly deserve to share.

But, like all other questions, this matter of the strikes has two sides, and to each side the general public must give a hearing. The coal operators declare that under the present condition of trade they are unable to grant the miners' demands. While wages have gone down they have not, the operators contend, gone faster or farther than coal prices. Moreover, whenever prices went up, they say, wages generally advanced simultaneously. Like all other branches of business the coal trade was injuriously affected by the financial disturbances which began four years ago, and some of the losses necessarily were shifted on to the miners. This is the rule in all occupations in times of distress. There may not be much comfort in this reflection, but it is the truth, as everybody knows. Though the miners whose wages are low even in normal times, feel the cuts in compensation more than do some other sorts of laborers, yet in some degree at least the same kind of an affliction has come to the majority of men, employers as well as employed.

While public sympathy will be with the strikers so long as they refrain from violating the laws, the folly of starting a labor contest at this period can not be too strongly condemned. Just at the time when the tariff bill was about to go to the statute book, when adequate revenue would be furnished to the government, and adequate protection would be provided for all industries; confidence was fully restored, and when an era of trade activity and prosperity such as the country had not known in a dozen years was about to open, this labor conflict is precipitated to disturb all business calculations, to clog the wheels of industry, and to postpone the solid and permanent trade expansion which was in sight. The lessons of the disaster which came to the strikers in the labor contests of the past score of years ought to teach the miners wisdom. The result of the railroad workers' folly of 1877, of the Missouri Pacific madness of 1894 and of the Debs crime of 1896 should teach labor societies the futility of precipitating a struggle in times when, as now, the chances are overwhelmingly against them.

"Beneath Notice."

(Courier-Journal.)

A Kentucky silverite organ, with characteristic silverite elegance, thus addresses the gold Democrats of the State: "True Democrats indeed! Why you are beneath the notice of a many nigger, and not entitled to half the respect." Whereupon the aforesaid organ proceeds to "notice" the "true Democrats" at length.

As Usual.

(Hanson Exchange.)

Madisonville does not celebrate the 4th. It is not that her citizens are devoid of patriotism, but they are not in the habit of doing such things and leave it all to progressive cities like Hanson and Earlinton.

Many Coal Miners at Work, and the Strike Ordered May Fall Flat.

WEST VIRGINIA WILL NOT STRIKE.

About One-Third of the Mines in the Pittsburgh District in Operation.

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 6.—The strike order of the National Executive Board of the United Mine Workers of America was obeyed by from 10,000 to 15,000 of the 21,000 miners in the Pittsburgh district today. The great struggle is now on in earnest, and the developments of the next few days will determine the success or failure of the fight for a uniform mining rate. Pittsburgh is the pivotal point in the five States engaged in the contest, and the success of the local officials in their efforts to secure a general suspension in this district will have an important bearing on the outcome of the movement.

While it is estimated that at least two-thirds of the miners have thrown down their picks, enough men are still at work to seriously impair the chance unless they can ultimately be brought out. This, President Dolan confidently claims can be done. The operators, on the other hand, are in no wise disconcerted, and assert that the strike can not succeed.

In West Virginia the miners have been slow in responding to the strike order. A dispatch tonight says that a general strike in the State is not probable. The union are not organized, and they are inclined to regard the strike elsewhere as favorable to their chances for securing plenty of work at good prices while it is pending. Great pressure is being brought to bear upon them by the United Mine Workers, officials to join the strike, but so far without success.

No Strike in West Virginia.

Wheeling, W. Va., July 6.—The coal miners' strike in this region began this morning, and the results are discouraging. All the Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling miners and half the men along the Baltimore and Ohio, at Fairmont, Monongah, Grafton, along the Virginia Central and Pittsburgh railroad, along the Norfolk and Western, in the Kanawha and New River valleys, along the Chesapeake and Ohio and Kanawha and Michigan railroads, have paid no attention to the strike order.

Half the Wheeling and Lake Erie miners are working, but there is hope that they may quit. The strike, it is said, is in danger of failing without West Virginia, for it can supply nearly all the iron ore. West Virginia broke the last national strike and it may break this one.

Ratchford is Optimistic.

Columbus, O., July 6.—President Ratchford, of the United Mine Workers, is greatly pleased with the progress of the present strike, and regards the outlook as exceedingly bright. The Pittsburgh district is the only one that a report has yet been received from at the national headquarters in this city.

Large Coal Supply.

Columbus, O., July 7.—Mr. A. Brenholz, who manages the home office for the General Hocking Coal Company, says there is at least 30,000 tons of coal in storage in the Northwest. He estimates that this will supply all demands for at least four months, no matter how general the miner's strike becomes.

There is considerable coal on the Ohio docks ready for shipment by lake, but this coal will not be sent West. It will be held for the purpose of supplying transient trade. With respect to a supply for the railroads, it is estimated that the different companies have enough coal on hand to last them about six weeks.

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 7.—According to estimates of the miners' officials sixty-two railroad mines are idle and twenty-six are still in operation. They reported that in a number of cases they had heard no news from certain mines, and take it for granted in many cases that they are in operation.

In summer-time, more especially, disease germs fill the air, multitudes are infected, fall ill, die; multitudes escape. These messengers of mischief do not exist for millions. Why not? Because they are healthy and strong—protected as a crocodile is against gunshot. It is the weak, the wasted, the thin-blooded who fall; those who have no resistive power so that a sudden cough or cold develops into grave disease. We hear of catching diphtheria! Why not catch health! We can do it by always maintaining our healthy weight.

If they are young and harmless, why fret, fume and fight at them? Would suggest that the best way to get along with them is to let them alone, and make no kick. For they are here in large numbers, and have come to stay and are increasing at a rapid rate; and as to his kind reference to the "King Bee," we are glad to note he feels so much interest in him as to propose to take especial care and get him a berth next November and with thanks would remind him that the "King Bee" is able to take care of himself and with the aid of whole swarms, expect to secure winter quarters, without asking the help of one who has yet been unable to secure a good berth for himself.

Now let our zeal for education, our love for the true and beautiful and our interest in the welfare of the boys and girls of this neighborhood and in the upbuilding of citizenship in general, prompt us to action along this line.

Do You Use It?
It's the best thing for the hair under all circumstances. Just as no man by taking thought can add an inch to his stature, so no preparation can make hair. The utmost that can be done is to promote conditions favorable to growth. This is done by Ayer's Hair Vigor. It removes dandruff, cleanses the scalp, nourishes the soil in which the hair grows, and, just as a desert will blossom under rain, so bald heads grow hair, when the roots are nourished. But the roots must be there. If you wish your hair to retain its normal color, or if you wish to restore the lost tint of gray or faded hair use Ayer's Hair Vigor.

Kansas City, Mo., July 7.—George Hall, a young man arrested Saturday by Detective McAnny in a Turkish bath room on Main street, has been identified as one of the train robbers who, one night three months ago, held up the Louisville & Nashville passenger train near Calera, Ala., and robbed the Southern Express Company of $3,000. Chief Vallins, when appointed head of the police department, was working on the express robbery, and had a perfect description of Hall and another of the robbers. Hall has a dark scar near the point of his chin, which led to his identity. Hall will be held here until an officer can be sent for him. A reward of $300 is offered for his capture.

The glorious Fourth was celebrated in Earlington this year, as it has been celebrated in all the past years, in a hearty manner by a multitude of people. The Knights of Pythias have for some years past practically appropriated the Fourth of July in Earlington, and the big picnics they give have become famous for miles around. The story of the beautiful picnic grounds at Lakeside Park, Loch Mary, and the equally beautiful surroundings has become so well grounded in the minds of the people within hearing, and the picnic grounds there are so well known, that the many people who enjoy a picnic are sure always to attend these celebrations.

Cyprus Trouillius, a Frenchman who formerly lived near Earlington, was assassinated at his home about three miles southwest of Nebo Monday evening, while eating his supper. Nobody but his wife and two children were on the place when the deed was done. Mrs. Trouillius says her husband was eating a late supper and had about finished when the shooting occurred. He was sitting with his back to an open window, and it was through this window, she says, the contents of a shot gun, which had been fired from the back of his head, was torn away. Mrs. Trouillius says she was clearing away the supper dishes at the time. She left the place immediately after the shooting occurred, taking her two children with her and went to the house of her nearest neighbor to give the alarm. She says she does not know of anybody who had anything against her husband. The remains were brought to Earlington and interred in the cemetery Tuesday evening about dusk.

LOCOMOTIVE BLASTS.
Not for many years has the L. & N. on the St. Louis division experienced so much trouble by a washout as they did last Friday, when a cloud burst between Howell and Mr. Vernon, Ind., caused such an overflow of water as to injure their track in such a manner as to delay trains about twelve hours.

John Trindle now ranks as the oldest man in time of service on the Vandalia lines. He commenced as a section hand in 1852; after one year he was promoted to freight brakeman; then to freight conductor; then to baggage master at Terre Haute, then local freight agent, and for the last seventeen years has run as a passenger conductor on the fastest train run on the road, and during his long service, like John Wise, another veteran in the Vandalia service, he has never been reprimanded for any cause.
